

Desert Circus Bids for National Prominence

Council Returns Fee Proposal To CofC Board

City Council members yesterday indicated they would return to the Chamber of Commerce a proposal to double business license fees in order to secure funds to build a 2,000 seat auditorium.

The Chamber board of directors voted the recommendation at the last meeting, and presented it to the council in the form of a resolution.

Members of the council looked on the proposal with an affirmative nod, but thought it would be better if the businessmen in town were given a chance to talk the matter over, and give it their approval.

City Manager Robert W. Peterson reported that the Chamber wanted to get the new license cost started in the next fiscal year "and it does not leave much time to get the kinks ironed out of the proposal."

By doubling the business license fees, the city would collect some $90,000 a year for the auditorium and Chamber convention promotion.

Police Continue Check into Death At Riverside

RIVERSIDE— Sheriff's deputies continued an investigation today into the death of John H. Sherman, 29-year-old Long Beach City College student whose body was found in a rocky gully near here.

Officers said Sherman, who had been missing since last Tuesday, was beaten to death and dragged several feet to the gully where he was found Sunday by two hunters.

Investigators theorized Sherman had been kidnapped last Tuesday, forced to drive to Riverside and then murdered.

'Mommy, Mommy'

Youth Escapes Death by Train

NEW YORK — A four-year-old boy hung by one foot between the ties of an elevated subway platform for five minutes Monday, screaming for his "mommy." She was dead beneath the wheels of a train.

As hundreds watched and prayed in the street 60 feet below, two policemen braced themselves to catch the boy. He was finally pulled to safety at the track level by the train's motorman and a transit policeman. His ankle was bruised, but he was otherwise unhurt.

POLICE SAID Mrs. Marie Vitucci, 39, had picked up the youngster, Michael, Jr., and deliberately jumped with him into the train's path. On the platform, Palm Springs Desert Circus celebration this year will make an initial effort to capture a national audience, on the first step to assume the same importance of Pasadena's famed Tournament of Roses.

This was revealed today by Circus Association President Sam Janis in an announcement that a theme suggested by Co-chairman Ray Ryan, "Palm Springs Salutes Texas," will provide the foundation for a tremendous broadening of the scope of the Circus.

JANIS SAID THAT Ryan's suggestion that a different state be honored each year had been unanimously recommended by the Theme Committee, headed by Don Klotzbuecher, and had been warmly accepted by the association.

Co-chairman of this year's April 16 to 26 celebration, Mac McDonald said that saluting the 48 states one by one, would insure national interest, participation and press coverage, and would be a tremendous tourist trade stimulant throughout the desert resort area.

"This is Palm Springs initial opportunity to build Desert Circus into an event of comparable importance to Pasadena's Tournament of Roses parade," McDonald added.

Navy Prisoners Captured After Brief Freedom

BAYONNE, N. J., — Five Navy prisoners working on the decommissioned battleship Wisconsin overpowered their Marine guards today and escaped from the Bayonne, N. J., Naval Supply Depot. They were captured less than an hour later.

The five, all described by police as "habitual AWOLs," were arrested in Jersey City.

The five, all wielding 45 caliber automatic pistols taken from their guards, had been brought here this morning from a Navy brig in Brooklyn to work on the dreadnaught, which was decommissioned Saturday and ordered into mothballs.

"Mommy! Mommy!" he cried. "Help me!"

HIS SHRIEKS brought crowds from the stores on the Brooklyn street below and the two officers from their beat.

The youngster was by then under the train, which motorman Matthew Reiss, 42, had been unable to stop in time to avoid the mother. Reiss and transit patrol men John Roselle jumped to the tracks and reached under, working frantically to free the boy without dropping him through the

New Snow Storm Hits Midwest

Plains States Also Receive New White Cover

By UNITED PRESS

The lower Midwest and the Plains States got another dose of March snows, boosting accumulations of old and new snow in parts of Western Kansas to more than a foot today.

The storm also dropped an additional two inches of snow in the St. Louis, Mo., area Monday night to bring the total snow depth there to seven inches.

A ONE TO TWO-INCH snow cover spread into West Central Illinois during the night, and weathermen said snow flurries were expected today along the Ohio Valley and the Central Mississippi Valley.

A high pressure center in the Great Lakes Region prevented the snow from pushing northward into its usual haunts, although a few flurries occurred in the lower lakes region Monday night.

MONDAY'S HEAVY snow fell from the Western Dakotas and Western Nebraska through Kansas and into Missouri. Some rural schools in the snow band were closed, but mild temperatures prevented highways from becoming snowpacked.

Light snow and snow flurries continued during the night from Montana south through Colorado and east through the Middle Mississippi Valley.

No Independent Red Cross Drive, Chairman Says

"There will be no independent solicitation for the American Red Cross," Shelby Langford, chairman of the local branch said today, after word was received that someone had been representing themselves as solicitors for the Red Cross.

The entire Red Cross campaign will be handled under the United Fund Drive of which a main event, the Porchlight Parade, will be held tonight, Langford said.

Increased Two Million In Past Year

Labor Secretary Tells of Efforts To Stop Climb

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said today unemployment climbed to 5,200,000 in February—a 16-year high.

A Labor Department spokesman said the actual unemployment figure for February was 5,173,000. He said Mitchell just "rounded off" the figure.

Mitchell said the unemployment total is two million higher than a year ago.

IT INCREASED 700,000 in one month, from mid-January to mid-February.

He said almost two-thirds of the unemployed, more than 3,300,000, are claiming unemployment compensation benefits.

Mitchell gave the breakdown in advance of a formal announcement scheduled later by the Labor and Commerce departments, in a speech to an AFL-CIO emergency economic conference. About 1,000 top trade union leaders gathered to discuss how to "put America back to work."

MITCHELL SAID that as of mid-February 62 million workers had jobs but 3 per cent were working short shifts.

He said the unemployment figure represented a rate of 6.7 per cent of the civilian labor force after accounting for seasonal factors. By comparison unemployment reached 25 per cent of U.S. labor force in the depths of the depression of the thirties.

Section 14 Plan To Be Subject

A joint meeting of the Planning Commission, the City Council, Special Planning Consultant for the City Simon Eisner and Planner for the Agua Caliente Tribal Council Ben Southland, will be held at the City Hall Wednesday at 1:30 p.m.

The meeting will feature a complete report on the master plan for Section 14, as well as discussions on regional shopping districts, streets and highways.

Congressional Leaders Agree On Tax Cut Delay

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower and congressional leaders of both parties decided today to hold anti-recession tax cuts in reserve in the hope business will get better without them.

Meanwhile, both called for prompt action on expanded public works programs to provide jobs for the growing army of unemployed.

THE DAY'S DEVELOPMENTS showed that both the administration and congressional Democrats have been studying tax cutting on an "if necessary" basis.

But at a 2½-hour White House conference President Eisenhower and Republican legislative leaders decided not to use this anti-recession weapon for a while.

HOUSE REPUBLICAN leader Joseph W. Martin Jr., told reporters it was decided the tax cut decision "could well be delayed for another month."

Supervisors Accept Both Annexation, Incorporation

By THELMA GOODSPEED

By one action Monday the Board of Supervisors officially received and filed simultaneously a petition seeking incorporation of North Palm Springs, and a notice from the City of Palm Springs announcing initiation March 6 of annexation proceedings which would annex an area included in the community proposed for incorporation.

County counsel Ray T. Sullivan, Jr., told the supervisors that William Shaw, attorney for the incorporation group, filed the Notice of Intention March 3 in the office of the Clerk of the Board too late to get on the board agenda for that day. The item was accordingly placed on the March 10 agenda.

STATE LAW, according to Sullivan, reads that the petition shall be filed "with the Board of Supervisors." He interpreted this to mean that it must be filed with the board, only when the board is in session, and expressed the opinion that the March 10 session of the Board was the time on which the petition was actually delivered to the board.

"There wouldn't have been any doubt if the petition had been brought into the supervisory chamber while the board was in session last week," Sullivan declared, "but as it is it will probably be up to the court to decide whether it was filed previous to Palm Springs annexation initiation. The board can do nothing about it now."

COUNTY ADMINISTRATIVE officer Robert T. Andersen said it appeared that the action by the Palm Springs City Council takes precedence in the area proposed for annexation. If the annexation is successful, the incorporation will be prevented. The only recourse to the petitioners for incorporation now is to seek a court opinion allowing the March 3 date as official filing date of the petition.

Thomas Pendergast, president of the North Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, charged that Andersen knew Monday noon (March 3)

that the petition was in the office of the Clerk of the Board but chose not to bring it before the board that afternoon.

ANDERSE, EXPLAINED that it is routine procedure not to accept items for the agenda after 5 p.m., on the Wednesday preceding the Monday board meeting. He said that anyone may bring a matter directly to the board while it is in session, but otherwise anything filed with the clerk after 5 p.m., Wednesday is automatically put over to the next week.

Only 120 More

Census Figures Puzzle Council

City Council learned yesterday that the new special census conducted in Palm Springs had only increased population by 120 residents, and tried to come up with a possible explanation.

Unofficial, preliminary figures, released by the supervisor of the census to City Manager R. W. Peterson, showed a total count of 12,345 people compared to 12,225 in 1956.

THE COUNCIL speculated on the narrow margin of difference between the two official censuses and came up with the belief that people who reside here and also in other states, are just not claiming to be local residents.

Said one councilman, "They just do not want to take the chance on getting caught by the State of California as residents here and have to pay taxes in this state — and you can't blame them."

COUNCILMEN EVEN brought up the $24 million in construction for the past two years, counting at least half of this for homes in support of an argument that residents should have increased by more than 850.

Census takers disclosed the number of non-resident homes counted, a total of 644. Counting 246 persons per home, the average locally, this would mean there were approximately 1,600 persons who own homes, but who do not claim residence.

PETERSON SAID that the home-building could be referred to as "internal migration," with people moving from apartments into their own homes.

He reported that the census was taken with the "utmost care," with homes checked and rechecked. He cited one case where the census supervisor conducted a check of one district, believing the count too low, and came up with an identical figure.

The Desert Sun today is publishing a special form whereby persons who believe that they weren't counted may fill it in, and send it to Census, City Hall Palm Springs. Each name received will be added, if not already counted by the special enumerators.

Recorder Ross To Be Candidate For Re-election

County Recorder Jack Ross this week announced that he will be a candidate for re-election to another four year term.

He has served in this office since 1926, having been appointed to fill an unexpired term by the Board of Supervisors, and since then having successfully sought re-election.

He is 57 years of age, and has been a Riverside resident for 53 years. He attended schools there, and received a Bachelor of Laws degree from Blackstone College of Law.

Ross is a charter member of Post 79, American Legion, past president of the State Association of county Recorders, and past president of the Riverside Exchange Club.

After their mission's thatched roof caught fire three times, the friars of San Luis Obispo de Tolosa — founded in 1772 — decided to rebuild with tile, setting the traditional style for California missions.

Berkey To Be Candidate for Re-election To Fourth District Supervisorial Position

Supervisor George Berkey this week announced his candidacy for re-election to his Fourth District. He was originally appointed by Gov. Goodwin J. Knight to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Homer Varner.

In announcing his candidacy, Berkey said:

"Because of the wonderful support I have had from the citizens of the Fourth District and the excellent cooperation of members of the Board of Supervisors, I have decided to be a candidate for re-election.

"For many years the county failed to recognize the importance and growth of the desert areas, so the level of county services fell far behind the needs. With the cooperation of the current Board of Supervisors many steps have been taken to correct this situation and more have been authorized.

"With continued support and cooperation I will be able to see that the county promotes, protects and keeps pace with the development of the desert."

Next Major Move to Rout Recession Up to Congress

With signs appearing in several quarters indicating that the national slump in business is lessening, next major move to rout the recession completely is nearing final organization stages in Congress.

Spearheading the campaign for wide and effective congressional action is able, alert and active Senator William F. Knowland who for some weeks has been hammering away daily to get federal bureaus and departments in motion on releasing a number of large scale construction projects.

Among these are extensive flood control and reclamation projects, participation in new school and post office buildings, and nationwide highway construction and improvement.

Funds for many of these have been available for some time and plans completed and approved awaiting only the final go ahead signal from top governmental commands.

Other additional appropriations are expected to be speedily voted as the result of congressional meetings scheduled this week, to get the full program going as soon as possible.

With some economists saying that the worst of the slump is now past, and the majority of the nation's best known financial experts predicting that business generally will regain its previous levels by mid-summer, the extra impetus from the national construction program should be widely beneficial by that time.

Allowing for a normally expected six months lag between the launching of a national program and the attainment of its full scale results, the fact that it is under way will bolster business in many lines in the certainty of a final half of the year which should equal if not surpass former records.

The current recovery campaign in Congress, coupled with a number of executive actions taken by the government during recent months, plus easing of money for private construction, all point to a substantial increase in employment, manufacturing, purchasing and spending with each succeeding month.

National recovery is slowly but surely gaining powerful momentum.

Come Off the Summit

WASHINGTON, D. C. — While the White House clings to its fascination for a Summit Conference, there has been presented to the Senate an idea for something different — a Footstool Conference.

It is premature to link the name of any Senator to this idea, but Senators Green, Kennedy, Fulbright, Smith (N. J.) and Hickenlooper listened very intently to some testimony on the subject. They heard Professor W. W. Rostow, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, give what I am calling the Footstool pitch. It is somewhat as follows:

CHIANG KAI-SHEK, now taking refuge in Formosa, is the man who ought to hold a global seminar on world affairs. The Generalissimo is a nationalist who long ago did what Nasser, Sukarno, Nehru and other nationalist leaders are trying — each in a different degree — today.

Even before Chiang came to power in Nationalist China, the revolution led by Sun Yat-sen looked first to the Western Democracies for sympathy and then to Communism. Chiang himself tried to accept help from Moscow without getting devoured. He learned that this could not be done.

AS LATE AS 1946-47 Chiang was being urged by the Truman Administration to take Communists into his government. In the end, Communists betrayed Nationalist China and took over the country. Chiang, the patriot leader, was driven to exile.

"There is little doubt," Prof. Rostow told the attentive group of Senators, "that Moscow and Peking regard Nasser, Nehru, Sukarno and other non-Communist leaders of the new nations as the Chiang Kai-sheks of the future."

THESE LEADERS could learn a lesson by sitting at the feet of Chiang. He could tell them — most gladly, in all probability — of the early naïveté, of his later mistakes, of his final catastrophe.

There is every reason why we Americans and all Westerners should sit in as auditors of the Generalissimo's lectures. For in America we have suffered from the same naïveté, mistakes and catastrophe that Chiang would be describing. And in West Europe the democratic leaders who are still practicing bloody colonialism in Cyprus and North Africa, would benefit from a playback of the China story.

FROM THE DAYS of Marx, a hundred years ago, down to the present, Communism has batted on colonialism. It is a diet that never once failed to strengthen the Reds and to fatten the victim for slaughter.

Dr. Rostow, recognizing nationalism as the strongest political urge in the peoples of the world today, found that it does not gain maturity without passing through certain transitional phases, for example:

President Diem of South Vietnam is establishing a strong central state on the salvage of French colonialism.

PRESIDENT NASSER of Egypt-Syria is channeling the hatred of British colonialism into military adventures for ruling the Middle East.

Premier Nehru of India is concentrating on domestic improvement.

The old Generalissimo on Formosa is in a position to discuss these phases with all modern nationalists who gather at his footstool. A danger lurks in every phase.

CHIANG, FROM HIS own experiences, could tell Diem that it is a mistake to tie a new revolutionary government too tightly to the old landlords and merchants. It is equally a mistake for Nasser to accept a foreign alliance and to outrun his popular mandate.

It was the nominal alliance with Russia against Japan during World War II that made for Chiang's ruin. Finally, Nehru's attempt to reform or modernize a run-down domestic economy by accepting outside aid of "agrarian advisors" which helped to founder Nationalist China.

And yet, while each phase is perilous, it is necessary for a new nation to pass through all three of them without being destroyed. Our own country, Prof. Rostow points out, went through similar tests before emerging as a stable power.

TODAY, IN ADDITION to those mentioned, the countries of Israel, Kashmir, Iran, Indonesia, Burma, Ceylon, Afghanistan, Yugoslavia and possible others are all in critical phases of national development. They are in need of discussing, preferably in a seminar fashion, the problems common to them all.

These problems, common to all the new nations, are equally critical to the old, established powers — that is, to the USA, the USSR, and their followers on either side of the Iron Curtain.

What can a Summit Conference do for these problems? What problems would not yield much better to a Footstool Conference? — Holmes Alexander.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: It took $10,000 of my money to put my husband through school and now he has opened up an office as an osteopath. I am his office-nurse, janitor, bookkeeper, "lab" girl and business manager. I have never received one penny in wages. He's a very good doctor but he is afraid to ask his patients for money and he won't let me ask them. When I tell him we have to pay our own bills he tells me he became a doctor to help people and not to take money. When he makes a house call I see plenty of beer bottles around and they all say, "Charge it, Doc." He's been practicing three years and we're up to our necks in debt and he has over $40,000 on the books. What do you say, Abby?

"DOC'S" WIFE

DEAR WIFE: People can't get groceries for nothing and they shouldn't expect free medical care. If your husband doesn't want to ask his patients for the money, he should allow you (as his office-nurse) to do so.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a boy who drops the girl he has practically grown up with and who is his social counsel for a little nobody from the wrong side of the tracks? DROPPED DEAR DROPPED: If you are the girl, I think he used good judgment. And by the way, haven't you heard? They took up the tracks years ago and are now using buses.

DEAR ABBY: Recently a young mother moved next door to me. She has three of the most beautiful children you ever saw, ages 10, 7 and 18 months. The father is not there but I understand he contributes to their support. The mother goes off and leaves the 10-year-old in charge. She sometimes stays away until early morning and the child comes to me and asks me to start telephoning bars to locate her mother. I have given them supper many times, otherwise they'd go hungry or drink sour milk. If I notify the police I'm afraid the children will be placed in an institutional home. What should I do?

NEIGHBOR

DEAR NEIGHBOR: Lose no time in reporting this "mother" to the Children's Protective Association.

DEAR ABBY: I disagree with the advice you gave Harold about walking down the aisle with the blonde. That's how I lost my boyfriend. He did his cousin a favor by walking a blonde down the aisle at his wedding. After all, men are only human and a blonde is a blonde.

A BRUNETTE

DEAR BRUNETTE: I will agree that a man is only human — but many "blondes" are really brunettes.

DEAR ABBY: Perhaps times are changing too fast for me, but today I received an invitation to a "Purse Shower." My first thought was, "Who would want so many purses?" After talking to others who had been invited I learned that this meant YOU bring your OWN purse and dish out some money. I am still in shock and can't figure out what people are coming to. What is your opinion?

IN SHOCK

DEAR IN: I think "showers" that request cold cash are pretty cold.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

GRIN AND BEAR IT By LICHTY

"... And I consider 'pay' television a dire threat to politics, gentlemen! ... It could well mean NOBODY listening to campaign speeches! ..."

EARL WILSON: Why You Watch Westerns

NEW YORK — "Do you know why westerns are so popular on TV?" demanded an eastern-type director indignantly. "Because the audience knows in advance what the ending's going to be and doesn't have to think. And with TV 'going Hollywood,' with everything being filmed in five days, it's never going to be any better!" So saying, he downed three more drinks.

Jackie Gleason and Horace Stoneham played golf in Phoenix. Each shot an 86-proof ... Sabrina, the English beauty, met Hugh O'Brien at Danny's Hideaway and they made a date and went to the Copacabana. "Be careful," a friend warned her. "He's a pair of 38's." Sabrina came back, "I tote a pair of 41's!"

What's this? Polly Bergen was asked to get rid of her pop on her TV show, and she wouldn't, and there's a crisis? (Rumor hath it!) ... My son Sluggie's definition of college: "Something terribly hard to get into and out of." ... Jayne Mansfield made a funny at the Las Vegas Tropicana when a bloke got fresh. "Outwardly he was stupid and silly," she said, "but inwardly he was just the opposite—silly and stupid."

Kim Novak's double, Scott Wedon from Hoboken, lost 45 pounds in two weeks. By eating nothing and drinking only coffee ... Gloria Swanson says girls don't know how to walk nowadays. Taft Tuttle says she's right; girls don't walk anymore; all they do is run — around desks.

Beautiful Erin O'Brien and I were lunching at the luxurious Forum restaurant — on Alpine Snow Hare Stewed in Spiced Red Wine — when somebody asked Erin, mother of two and one of a family of nine, why she doesn't study. Ignoring the atmosphere of luxury, she replied, "It takes money to study" — a startling answer.

Ex-linotype Ray Walston from Houston and Cleveland is about the greatest comic stage actor in America now (except maybe for Peter Ustinov). You'll find him riotous in the Peter Lind Hayes-Mary Healy hit, "Who Was That I Saw You With?" In that he samples a chemistry prof's drink, scotch with a vodka undertone, and proposes a new drink entirely: "Scotchka." The show has precisely what America needs today: laughs.

Shari Lewis of the "Hi Mom" and "Shariland" TV shows on NBC, is marrying Jeremy Tarcher, a Dumont producer ... Foolosophy: A Broadway leopard never changes his spots — he only picks them ... You hear about the American kid who tried to learn Spanish working in a restaurant in Mexico City as a dishwasher? After 3 months he didn't know a word of Spanish. (He was working in a Greek restaurant.)

Down in West Virginia's back hills, J. Poryer Gillespie (of Pittsburgh) spotted a 1935 car. "Why, that's so old," he said, "it looks like one of those new foreign cars." Too much bathing and face-washing can be bad for you. Out in Ohio a fellow who'd been perfectly happy for 70 years without fooling around with that sort of thing suddenly went in for it and now is in a tragic situation. He's married.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL ... Elsa Maxwell will be asked to stand on her head for the Emanuel Sacks Leukemia Fund ... Virginia Reynolds (Mrs. Quant) has both Byron Foy and a rich Britisher daffy about her in Palm Beach.

Martha Raye and Hugh O'Brien required medics at the Big Record TV'er. (She's recuperating from appendicitis, he has a stomach ailment.) The "Run Silently, Run Deep" ads were scrapped: It was due to open March 26, the night of the Acad. Awards. (It'll open the 27th instead.) Sugar Ray Robinson's taking acting lessons in John Casavetes' class ... Toots Shor's Man-of-the-Year award in Philly will bring half the greatest celebs alive back to his home town ... MGM singing star Rosalind Paige begins her cafe and hotel tour at the Neil House in Columbus.

British papers headlined the second Eddie Fisher baby's arrival: "Tammy's a Mammy!" ... Jody McCrea, Joel's son, is dating "Li'l Abner" showgirl Joan Marsh ... One of the town's plushiest spots, with only 50 customers, trimmed its show ... The Aga Khan's brother Amyn will be a "chorus girl" in the next Harvard Hasty Pudding show ... Liz Tenay, who "sang" for the DA about the underworld, is sought by a major record company. (To sing, of course.)

MIKE CONNOLLY: Tracy Denies Producer Talk

HOLLYWOOD — Hearing that Spencer Tracy might quit acting and take up directing after he finishes "The Last Hurrah" for Columbia, I tracked him to his dressing room and got this denial: "Nope. Actors would drive me crazy. We're a strange lot."

Kim Novak, same studio, will throw a housewarming, her first Hollywood party, after she finishes redecorating the home of Chicago shoe heiress Mary Pickens Jones purchased for her by Columbia ... How's the decorating coming along? "Much slower," Kim told me, "than the items in the gossip columns say it is."

JACK LEMON's first record album will be titled "The Jack Lemon Nobody Knows" (that's the one who sings and plays the piano) ... Gene Krupa signed the contract and producer Phil Waxman will drum up the drummer boy's biopic.

Dennis Day discloses that two of his chums got married in a Japanese public bath in Tokyo. Adds Dennis: "It was a double RING ceremony!"

MARLENE DIETRICH decided not to do it so Garson will take a week off from Broadway's "Auntie Mame" to do the Catherine the Great "cameo bit" in John Farrow's "John Paul Jones" ... Alan Livingston gave Betty Hutton a blank check at Don Loner's gown emporium in celebration of their reconciliation — also a new sportscar.

Liz Taylor gave Mike Todd a haircut ... Todd Talk: "I moved my offices to M-G-M because Liz is there making 'Cat on a Hot Tin Roof' and besides, as Liz always says, 'Whither thou goest count me in too, Daddy-O!'"

PAUL DOUGLAS looms likeliest to play the railroad prexy in "The Wreck of the Old 97," in which Doris Day will sing one song, a Cub Scout item titled "I Think I Can," in the general direction of her leading man, Jack Lemmon.

Johnny Stompanato aired out Acapulco-way to help Lana Turner build her new seaside hacienda ... Walter Wanger is nudging Nanette Fabray to put on 30 pounds for the role of Susan Hayward's sloth-tongue prison cellmate in "The Barbara Graham Story."

Wanger's next will be a French horror picture, "The Guillotine" in which he hopes to star Brigitte Bardot as the belle who gets her head chopped off ... Joe E. Taylor's line: "So what if Brigitte Bardot can't speak English — one look at her and everybody THINKS in French anyway!"

Nick Adams' scoop: "I just heard about a pack of Beverly Hills juvenile delinquents who are not too young to drive — so they just steal cars with chauffeurs!"

We need only glance at snow-capped San Jacinto and back at the array of new blossomed flowers, to realize that our preview to spring and summer is indeed our special privilege. Nestled in our protected area below, this privilege evidences itself in more ways than climatic-wise.

Fashionwise, we are allowed a preview which amounts to a season's headstart. It is good to have been able to see trends established—it makes choosing a sensible wardrobe more exciting.

With this in mind the PALM SPRINGS WOMEN'S CLUB will, this Thursday, be presented with FASHIONS which look forward with gaiety to the summer months . . . sumptuously previewed by FAYE-RENEE!

Crisp beguiling cottons take the spotlight . . . and with a budget in mind.

Having a way with cotton, PAT

PREMO will be mentioned often, and her ETCHED ROSE PRINT on white will be a sensation. Simple bodiced . . . featuring a V neck which dips low in the back, the dress boasts a skirt with pleats—three deep . . . accented with a grosgrain tie belt in pink.

AS COOL AND caressing as a breeze, JEANETTE ALEXANDER uses the season's favorite floral print . . . washable of course, and drip dry for less time at the ironing board. The colors are a garden of shades of yellow.

Youthfully styled, this dress will reveal your flattering tan with its wide neckline, and the covered buttons on the bodice add an interesting detail . . . as do the maneuvered cap sleeves. The skirt is swirling, with tiny unpressed pleats to compliment the waistline.

PROVING THAT cotton can hold its own in the after 5 hours, will be a SCREEN PRINT, all cotton in spring's most noticed color . . . BLUE. As cool as the sea, it is a slim, easy sheath, made dramatic with a sarong skirt that drapes intriguingly to the left, where it is caught with a great rose of self fabric.

These are only a few of the summer fashions, for travel or desert living, especially chosen for the Women's Club from FAYE-RENEE'S. I am looking forward to commenting the show . . . what's more exciting than sharing ideas about pretty clothes for happy times . . . there will also be a resume follow-up. (191 South Palm Canyon.)

DENIM TAKES TO THE SUN, all in the spirit of fun, at ROBINSON'S. How you will love to know that part of the fun is because there is no more starching . . . no more wrinkling . . . and just the merest touch of an iron keeps this fabric disciplined and fresh.

FLEISCHMAN AND BATES combine talents for a suit wardrobe, fabulous in its scope. Just consider . . . a sleeveless scoop-neck blouse worn with a front-wrap skirt . . . a one-piece jump suit with an elasticized waistband . . . ankle slacks worn with a strapless cuffed bodice . . . a wrap-to-the-back sundress sparkled with brass buttons and a gently curved pocket on each hip (for hands or 'things') . . . or a kangaroo pull-over with white cotton knit collar and side lacings!

What else could you dream about for relaxed sun-filled days, unless it would be the exciting COLORS of cork tan, clear yellow, or faded blue? There might be one other thing . . . all this splash of color and fashion is also budget minded and all at ROBINSON'S. (333 South Palm Canyon Drive.) Adv.

Husband Given Visits to Dog

CHICAGO — Mrs. William Stokes was granted the divorce, but Stokes, 60, was given what he wanted, too. He may visit the family dog twice a week, the court decrees.

Water from the Amazon River freshens the Atlantic ocean as far as 100 miles out to sea, the National Geographic Magazine says. The Amazon's discharge is greater than that of the world's three next largest rivers combined.

BERNIE AND ERNIE YOUNG, of Hibbing, Minn., take a coffee break at El Mirador Hotel's weekly Outdoor Steak Barbecue. The Youngs are avid fans of the popular Tuesday night event, which has been extended to include an after-dinner and cocktail round-up in the hotel's Kiva Room starting tonight. Mrs. Vera Arnold spent a few days in Whittier last week and brought her mother, Mrs. Zella

Scobey home with her for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. Ernest Blenkhorn spent the weekend here. She returned to Santa Monica with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sponberg, who are spending a few days in their Santa Monica home.

Among the far-away guests at Shadow Mountain Terrace are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Davis of Portland, Ore., who make their desert visit an annual affair; also Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sabin and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bennett of Grants Pass, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Lynn of Portland, as well as Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wolcott of the same city. June Wedding Plans Revealed

A wealthy, retired realtor, who made most of his money in Florida but has wintered in Palm Springs for 26 years, and a selector for Bullock's chose Palm Springs' Tennis Club as a place to announce they will soon exchange marital vows.

The bridegroom-to-be is Herbert J. Carpenter and the future Mrs. Carpenter is Mrs. Cindy Kalmbach, of Long Beach. They will be married in the Mission Inn Chapel in Riverside June 10 and will take up residence in Tranconia, New Hampshire, where Carpenter has a summer home.

The couple met in Palm Springs. Their first date was at a New Year's Eve celebration at the Shadow Mountain Club. Mrs. Kalmbach, who has had an illustrious career in fashions, will resign her position as selector for Bullock's boutique department before her marriage.

Oriental Snack

A Far East dish called "Sambel" goes well with cocktails, fruit juice or a main course. Cut fresh grapefruit into sections and sprinkle with toasted or plain coconut.

New Comedy Opening at Playhouse

A change of pace is scheduled for Palm Springs Playhouse when "King of Hearts" by Jean Kerr and Eleanor Brooke, is presented this week, March 11 through Sunday, according to announcement of producers-directors, Michael and Marjorie Ferrall.

Handsome, suave William Tregoe, who opens tonight in the role of Larry Larkin, pompous cartoonist who can never forget his importance to himself, has appeared on Broadway and on tour in such plays as "Chicken Every Sunday," "Pajama Tops." He has played leading man opposite such stars as Constance Bennett, Sylvia Sydney, Kay Francis, Ilona Massey, Veronica Lake and Signe Hasso. He is well known to television audiences having recently appeared in Kraft's Studio One, Matinee Theatre, Bachelor Father and the Charlie Chan series.

John Bonitz plays the timid ghost writer who finally finds his own strength, and red-haired Lynn Bailey is cast as Larkin's efficient secretary and fiancée. Miss Bailey understudied the role in New York when it was presented there.

Young Larry Hart, son of Villager Teddy Hart and nephew of Lorenzo Hart, carries the role of the orphaned youngster Larkin adopts in his secretary's name and presents the reason why everyone finds the right exit at the final curtain. Sharing the spotlight with Larry will be the dog he always wanted. His confidante, Billy, will be played by Jimmy Ritter.

Others scheduled for appearance in this laugh-a-minute comedy are Matt Pelton, George Womack, Dori Warren, George Byrne and Charles Palmer. Michael Ferrall directs.

Tonight's First Nighter dinner is at La Paz.

On Florida Tour

Leo Martin of Palm Springs, musical comedian of Paris, with his original "Moulin Rouge" is on concert tour in Florida and staying at the Roney Plaza in Miami Beach until the end of the tour. He will soon be returning to the west coast to fulfill engagements in principal resort towns.

Host First Drop-In Luncheon

Palm Springs had its first drop-in luncheon Sunday afternoon, when the W. B. Maloufs entertained around 250 friends including numbers of weekending Angelinos down for the WAIF Ball at their Via Las Palmas home. The pleasant affair honored the Maloufs' houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Rousseau of San Francisco, and their daughter and her husband, the Thayer Raggios.

The drop-in luncheon which originated in Los Angeles this winter, is a novelty here. Guests were invited to drop in between 1 and 3 o'clock, with a brunch buffet being served continuously.

The bar was set up in the garden and the buffet indoors in the Malouf playhouse, and the little groups of people still chatting about the WAIF Ball the night before, gathered both indoors and out.

Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright of Chicago, who are at the Tennis Club for their fifth year (she's president of Arden Shores and this year's recipient of the coveted Almoner award for outstanding charitable work), the John McClures, Tom Flemings, Bertine Treat, John Saito, the Joe Froggats (who leave Thursday on their trip to the Orient), Henry Dollards, Fred Karlens, Monte Herberts (weekend houseguests of the McClures), Bill Bannermans, George Robertsons, Ernie Youngs, George Wheelers, George Gannons, Maynard Laswells.

Also: the Ned Bishops Sr., Don Witherbees, Walter Brummarks, James Kempers, Joe Pawlings, Dolph Oberfelds, Irving Snyder, Ken Kirks, Dick and Edith Edwards, Mrs. Ben Gale, Vie and Bud Graves, Anita Haskell Jones, Frank Muller, Mrs. Lloyd Frank, Norm and Peg Waters, the Harold Murphys, the Robert Lawsons of Flintridge (McClures' houseguests), the Ed Robbins, Mrs. Ed Rothbart, Bob Simon, Mrs. Donald Freshwater, Mrs. P. A. Staley, Ray Ryan, and more...

Progressive Party Honors New Members

Jaycee members and their wives held a progressive get-acquainted cocktail party Friday evening in honor of their new members.

The party which started out at the Desert Inn for cocktails wound up at the Tennis Club with a buffet party in the Bougainvillea room.

Among the many enjoying the evening were Messrs. and Mmes. Marshall Redman (he was chairman for the evening), Robert Schlesinger, Frank Allen, Maurice Smith, William Wilson, Robert Morrison, James Schilling, Mel Wasserman, Dave Fisher, Neil Thuresson, Donald Wexler, Richard De Long, Herb Ebbitz, Tom Hayes, Larry Coulton, J. R. Wahlberg, James Schlecht, Mel Ambler, Terrence Roach, Hal Joseph, William Foster, Hy Raines, William Bronstein, Nick Mutascio, Lee Mullich, Warren Strebe, Jim Bigley, Dr. and Mrs. Chet Baldwin, Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Huffman.

New members Messrs. and Mmes. Richard Kimberly, Ken Jackson, Joe Smith, Gene Bergeron, Rich Ehl, John Lennox and guests Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mount and Mel Bren.

AN INNOVATION for Palm Springs, the W. B. Maloufs hosted the first of the drop-in luncheon Sunday, honoring their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Rousseau of San Francisco and their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Thayer Raggio. Pictured at the brunch table, from left to right, the Maloufs, the Raggios, and the Rousseaus.

VACATIONING HERE from Chicago are Mr. and Mrs. William Cameron, who are visiting their niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Waltha Clarke. The Village was filled this weekend . . . with traffic so heavy along Palm Canyon Drive that it was difficult getting in and out of the Desert Inn gates . . . swarms of people standing around peering in to store windows . . . hotel managers shooting out departing guests to make room for incoming . . . lots of parties . . . and warm sunshine to freshen sun tans, that faded out during the rainy spell . . . This was the weekend no one had to apologize for the weather to houseguests . . . or move parties indoors at the last minute . . . There's snow on the mountains and flowers on the desert . . . and living is at its best in desert country . . .

It will be a St. Patrick's party next Saturday night . . . when Bill and Betty Bannerman entertained with cocktails at their home on South Calle Rolph . . . followed by dinner dancing at Thunderbird Country Club. The men will wear white dinner jackets with gay green ties . . . and the women dinner dresses with a touch of the green . . .

Donald Stralem of New York City and Frank Mandel of Chicago . . . will be hosting all their Palm Springs friends at their annual cocktail party . . . at the Racquet Club next Monday evening . . .

John and Muriel Latourette (of the well-known Portland family) hosted an all-Portland party at the Racquet Club Friday evening . . . honoring the Ned Crawfords and Paula Reynolds . . . In the party was Dudley Clark . . . who has taken a house on North Cahuilla for two months . . . Dorothy Moore, the Cecil Livingstons and others . . .

The Crawfords have gone in to Los Angeles . . . where Ned will attend to some business matters while Joann makes a flying trip to Portland . . . before they go down to Acapulco for a week or so . . .

Jay Richards (Dorothy Freund's son) left yesterday for Puerto Rico . . . where he'll join the Rockefeller Foundation as advertising and promotion man . . . He's been agent and casting director for such TV shows as "Gun Smoke" and "Have Gun — Will Travel" . . .

The Brunmark party on April 12 . . . may easily turn out to be one of the most unique of the winter season . . . for Flo is passing the word this week . . . that all the women are to wear sack dresses . . . and it will be surprising if this doesn't inspire a Sad Sack or two among the men. This means, of course, that both sides of the question will be represented . . . with some of those beautiful imprints with blouson backs . . . versus the cartoonist's idea of what a sack dress looks like . . . This one party could easily decide the fate of the sack dress in Palm Springs . . . where they have not been very prevalent yet . . .

Pretty little Joyce Foreman has mononucleosis and is in Desert Hospital for a two week stay . . . that will be followed by seven weeks in bed . . . She can have visitors and they would relieve the monotony of all those days in bed . . .

Joyce, who's here to spend the winter with her aunt and uncle, the Lloyd Franks of Vereda Del Sur . . . has been working as salesgirl in the new J. W. Robinson store here . . . and was helping her Aunt Orph with ticket sales for the WAIF Ball . . . before she got sick and couldn't attend it . . .

One of her friends from Dominican College Ann Irving and her parents the William Irvings of Boise, Idaho were here this weekend to visit Joyce . . .

Ivy Baker Priest, United States Treasurer, who was here for a short visit last winter . . . will be back again this month . . . She's due in about two weeks . . . for a fortnight's visit with her friends the Ed Rothbarts of Chicago and Palm Springs . . .

Enor and Dad French gave one of those intimate musicales at their home up on El Camino Way Friday night . . .

Following a Santos-catered buffet . . . the drawingroom became a concert hall . . . and Rad sang . . . accompanied by Joseph Enos at the piano . . . Topping off a pleasant evening were the anecdotes told by Cliff Carlin . . .

Guests included the Hathaway and James Kempers, Billy MaJoufs, Oliver Rousseau . . . the Tom Flemings, Walter Brunmarks, Henry Dollards, Fred Albertsons . . . Dan Dunlaps, the William Bromstedts of Chicago, Mel Eatons, and others . . .

Bride to Be Honor Guest At Shower

The Cholla Room of the Huddlesprings was transformed into a pink bower for the luncheon and kitchen shower given for bride-to-be Sallie Lockett by Mrs. Philip Minnis of the Village . . .

Twenty-five guests sat at the U-shaped table which was decorated with pink sweet peas and carnations, pearl and lace trimmed nut cups and place cards, and silver candelabra with pink glitter candles. At the head of the table with hostess Mrs. Minnis were Sallie Lockett; her matron of honor Mrs. Don Williams; the bride's mother Mrs. Donald Lockett; Mrs. James Paul; and Mrs. Harold Berger, the Locketts' house guest from Beverly Hills . . .

The sister of Sallie, Shirley Ainsworth, sent a gift from Wichita Kansas, as she was not able to come for the party. The groom's mother, Mrs. Russell Space Henry Sr., who recently returned to her Beaver, Pennsylvania home after a month's stay in Palm Springs, also was represented by a gift package. The gifts—clocks, cooking utensils, tea towels, glassware, electrical appliances, and a variety of other articles for the kitchen—all were in pink and copper . . .

Sallie's fondness for pink is well known to her friends; and Mrs. Frank Cutler of Portland, formerly a Villager, and Mrs. Lee James, gave a "pink" shower for her at the Tennis Club a week ago. The gifts, wrappings, tablecloths, camellias to decorate the tables, and the gowns of the hostesses all were pink. As each miscellaneous shower gift was opened by the honoree, at the request of the hostesses, she "picked" a corsage of pink camellias from a large camellia bush which centered the table, and pinned it on the donor of the gift . . .

Sallie and Russell Henry Jr. are to be married at the Community Church on June 14, and will reside in the Village . . .

Business Women Present Scroll To Don Porter

A dozen members of Palm Springs Business Women's Club were interested spectators at Wednesday night's performance of "Separate Tables" at Palm Springs Playhouse, starring Don Porter and Margaret Phillips.

They not only went to see the play, but after final curtain, presented Porter, well known to television audiences as the impeccable boss of Ann Sothorn in "Private Secretary," with a scroll. The gift attested to the fact that there is little doubt but he has become the American secretary and business women's ideal boss; well groomed, single, tinged with romance, kind even in authority, and the perfect catch.

The scroll, bordered with short hand notes, the interpretations of which was left to Mr. Porter, carried four verses by Helen Morris, the first as follows:

"Don Porter (Peter Sands of 'Private Secretary'),
You are the most!
A dreamy, perfect boss:
The one the secretaries toast
When a party they do toss."

The verses were signed: Palm Springs Business Women's Club, by Sally Ohrt, president, and Vergie Dragicevich, secretary. Among those in the group making the presentation were Helen Morris, Mary Pickell (who made the scroll), Sally Ohrt, Jean Patane (who plays a role in the play), Tess Potter, Vergie Dragicevich, Sarah Freedman, Doris Gregg, Betsy McKinney, Munya Smoot, Louise Purnell, Vera Langston, Millie Hoffmeier and Margene Johnson.

Celebrate Birthday In Advance

The fragrance of narcissus and daffodils permeated the air and lent an early springtime atmosphere to the cocktail party held at the Stevens Road home of Mrs. Lorena Le Gro Tuesday evening.

The party was an advance birthday party in honor of Mrs. LeGro's mother-in-law, Mrs. Albert Le Gro, who is visiting here from Birmingham, Michigan, and will return home before her actual birthday.

Among the many guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Leonard Murchison, Martin Wade, Warren Slaughter, Robert Schlesinger, Donald Floon, Homer Hilton, Thomas Gordon (new home owners from Great Falls, Montana), C. H. Steere, Kenneth Herman, Kenneth Brott, Albert Coffy, Frank Chalfont.

Also: Dr. and Mrs. Frank Fara (winter residents from Riverside, Illinois), Dr. and Mrs. George Kaplan, Mrs. John Blish, Mrs. Frank Payne, Mrs. William Eisenman and sister Mrs. White, Mrs. Ogden Ellis from Grosse Pointe, Michigan, Mrs. Noble Banks, Dr. Alton Horton and Mary Morley.

Jacquie Cole Out of Hospital

Jacqueline Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Becker of 828 Avenida Palos Verdes, has just been released from a San Francisco hospital after a serious bout with pneumonia. Her two young sons Tommy and King have also been home from school for three weeks suffering from severe colds. According to report from her father Charles Becker all three are well on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Becker returned Sunday evening by plane after spending a week in San Francisco at the home of her daughter.

Foyer Exhibits Paintings by Georgia Caldwell

Opening tonight at Palm Springs Playhouse for two weeks is an exhibition of paintings by Palm Springs artist, Georgia B. Caldwell, in private life, Mrs. C. W. Freeman.

Miss Caldwell's exhibit includes three divergent phases of her painting career, pure representation florals, stylized panels and abstracts with a cubistic flavor. She gained national recognition through the reproduction of her eighteen floral prints, sales of which now have topped two million.

Miss Caldwell started her painting interest at the age of eight years when she began her studies under F. G. Walker and later worked with Beatorman of Louisville and New York and at the Chase school in New York City. She paints in several mediums, some based on her own formula, but all of them in brilliant oils.

Non-Fat Sandwich

For a different type of sandwich tray, core apples and slice them crosswise into circles. Spread with bacon crumbs, cottage or cream cheese, deviled ham or cold cuts. Not high in calories, but high in health value.

Art gum will remove sooty footprints from light-colored rugs.

Harpist Appears On Broadcast

Mrs. Roger Williams of 373 Monte Vista Drive, who played the harp professionally for several years, giving it up to raise her family, has resumed her career this past year.

Friday evening she played with the Redlands Symphony orchestra featuring the flute and harp, in Bizet's L'Arlesienne Suite. The concert was broadcast from San Bernardino over station KVRC both AM and FM.

Remove grease spots from clothing with flour. Put a clean cloth underneath the garment and rub flour on the spot. Then rub the spot with another clean cloth. The method is useful for taking off grease from shirt collars.

Today's Sport Parade

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (U-P)—Fabulous Vegas, they call it—and there is no other word that describes the city better.

There's a recession on? Listen to these stories:

The Desert Inn Country Club golf course recently boosted the price of green fees from $5 to $10 per round.

"We did it because the club members couldn't get on and were complaining that there were too many visitors on the course," said Howard Capps, the head professional. "But the first day we set the $10 rate, we had more requests for starting times than ever and eventually turned away 32 players—and the members still aren't happy. Should we go for a $20 rate?"

THE NATIONAL Gin Rummy Tournament is on here—and more than 500 players from all over the country have entered, paying a $100 entry fee. The prizes total $25,000 with $10,000 for first. With the players already putting up more than $50,000, it is probable that the net profits, which go to charity, will run as high as $15,000.

"Some of the people here think this tournament, in five or six years, will be the biggest thing ever to hit Las Vegas," says Herb McDonald of the Sahara Hotel. "We had 50 people sign up who hadn't even sent in entries—just showed up from all over the country. It wouldn't surprise me to see 1,000 or more competing in the next few years."

A CRAZY TOWN? Listen to what Las Vegas will do to a respected senior citizen:

This gentleman was in town to compete in the 66-and-over bracket of the Trans-Mississippi Senior Men's Golf Tournament. He stayed up until 7 a.m. and had an 8 o'clock starting time. But he decided to get a cup of coffee before going to the tee. He was walking past one of the dice tables en route to the dining room, when he figured he had a little time to while away.

He eventually showed up for his starting time—without the cup of coffee, and had to carry around the course the unpleasant thought that he had lost $3,000 at the dice tables, didn't have any breakfast, hadn't been to bed all night—and now he was going to try to play golf.

Merchants Win Over El Centro In Batfest, 12-4

Palm Springs Merchants held the lead in the Riverside-Imperial League when they defeated the El Centro Growers Sunday at the Polo Grounds 12 to 4.

The victory gave them a 5-1 mark.

Max Melton held the visitors to six hits while Warren Linville and Joe Lazana of the local Merchants lead the attack with three hits out of four at bats each. Paul Dunn turned in some sensational plays in the outfield.

The Score:
El Centro 12 16 2
Palm Springs 4 16 2

Snider Rapidly Regaining Form In Spring Camp

MIAMI (U-P)—Those who consider Duke Snider's hitting power the key to the Los Angeles Dodgers' success this season had reason for hope today. Duke said his knee was improving so rapidly he might be able to play soon.

The hard-hitting Snider said he was pleased with the way he hit the ball Monday. Three of his smashes sent the ball sailing over the fence.

The Dodgers return to action tonight in the second game of a four-game series with world champion Milwaukee. Manager Walt Alston named Bill Harris, Dick Hanlon and George Barker to pitch.

Los Angeles downed the Braves 7-5, before 5,691 fans Monday night in the first game of the meeting.

PCC Crown Won by Bears Over Beavers

Teamwork Decides Play-Off Game by Score of 57 to 45

By NEAL CORBETT
United Press Sports Writer

The University of California basketball team will represent the Pacific Coast Conference in the NCAA regionals in San Francisco this weekend—simply because the Bears have a topnotch TEAM.

Coach Pete Newell's boys earned their second straight trip to the regionals Monday night by trouncing Oregon State, 57-45, in a play-off of conference co-champions.

The victory proved conclusively that a team which features two outstanding men can't hold the five against five darn good ones. Two Beavers scored 36 of Oregon State's 45 points, while four of Cal's starting five hit 10 or more—and the fifth one hit eight.

In the only other game played on the coast, Seattle University knocked over Bradley, ranked 11th nationally. Elgin Baylor scored 27 points in leading the Chieftains to the 80-74 victory.

Seattle, in a three-way tie for 19th in the national rankings, meets Wyoming in the regional playoffs at Berkeley Wednesday for a berth in the NCAA regionals.

Three Tied for New Orleans Top

NEW ORLEANS (U-P)—The final 36 holes of the $20,000 New Orleans Open began today with three top pros locked in a five-under-par 139 tie and the next 18 contenders only one to three strokes off the hot pace.

Leading the field into the final day were Ken Venturi of San Francisco, 71-68; former PGA champion Walter Burkemo of Franklin Hills, Mich., 68-71; and Bill Casper Jr., of Apple Valley, 70-69.

W. Virginia Voted U.S. Cage Champ

NEW YORK (UP)—West Virginia, with a remarkable 26-1 record this season, Tuesday was chosen as the 1957-58 National college basketball champion by the United Press Board of Coaches.

Coach Fred Schaus' Mountaineers, so lightly regarded in the pre-season forecast that they were not even picked to finish among the top 20 teams, barely edged Cincinnati for top honors in the closest race since the United Press ratings were initiated in 1950.

San Francisco was a not-too-distant third and Kansas State, which topped the ratings for the four previous weeks only to falter with two defeats last week, was placed fourth by the 35 leading coaches who comprise the United Press rating board.

West Virginia's final margin over Cincinnati was only three points, 300 to 297. Twelve members of the 35-man board of coaches, whose ratings have become recognized as the most authoritative in college basketball, made West Virginia their No. 1 choice; 11 voted for Cincinnati.

San Francisco attracted six first-place votes; Kansas State had four; and fifth-ranked Temple and seventh-ranked Notre Dame had one each.

Archie Moore Wins Over Albright in 7th

VANCOUVER, B.C. (U-P)—Light-heavyweight champion Archie Moore won a seventh round technical knockout Monday night over unranked Bob Albright, Los Angeles, in a scheduled 10-round non-title bout.

FIGHT DATE RESET

SAN FRANCISCO (U-P)—The date for the 12-round heavyweight fight between Eddie Machen and Zora Foley has been reset for April 9.

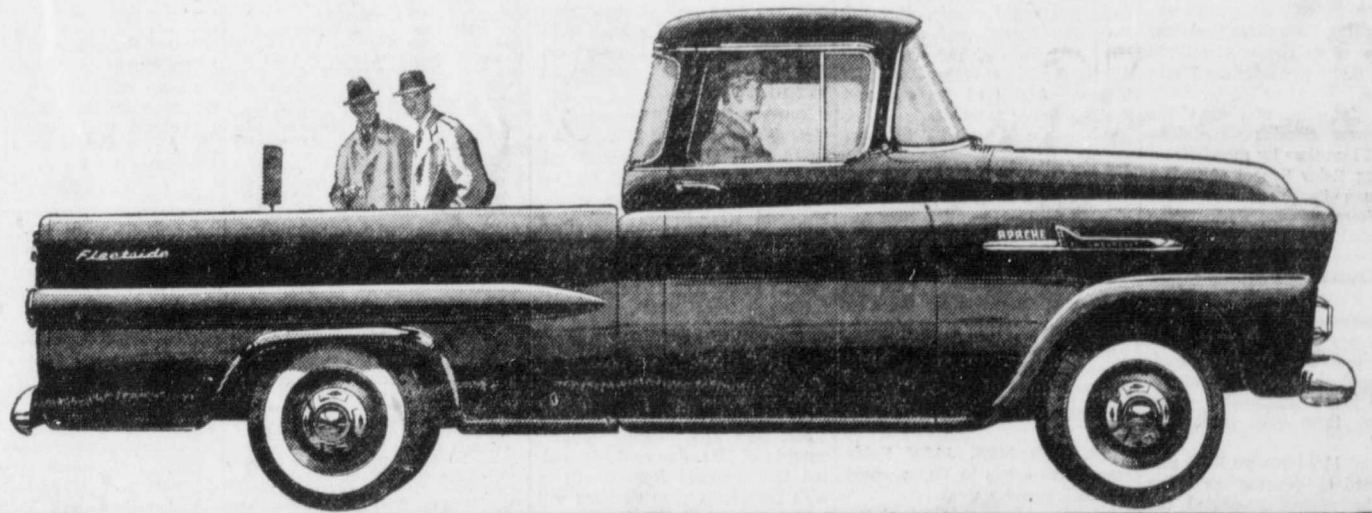

Village Cagers Smacked in First Tourney Round

Palm Springs' one-two teams in the City Basketball League ran into grief Saturday night in the opening round of the Riverside County Basketball tournament, both being bopped by the opposition.

Laurey's Steak Ranch quintet, winners in the City League with the loss of only one game and that was by default suffered their first defeat of the season on the actual floor when a San Bernardino team defeated them 73 to 41.

Smoke Tree Stables, who finished second in the city league ran into real trouble with the Landscapers of Corona, losing 58 to 109. Laurey's and Smoke Tree Stables meet here tonight in the second round of play and the loser will be eliminated as it is a double elimination tournament with two losses putting a team out of it.

DeLuxe Park
THURSDAY, MARCH 13, a new beginner class will start here. It is called the Spring Square Dance Class for Beginners and will be held at the Recreation Hall at 1:30 p.m. The class is open to anyone, and the instructor will be Howard Dudley.

The Monday night Do-It-Yourselfers had another good time this week. E. E. Krueger of Portland, Ore., taught them a new scottish, and the group of approximately 40 dancers had a most enjoyable evening. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Pratt, Nellie Woolbert and Ruth Nelson.

THOSE WHO HAVE returned from trips lately include Loren and May Catts who report a wonderful time they had in Hawaii. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nelson have returned from a three day trip to Leucadia where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Carlson and Mr. and Mrs. Les Brandon, both couples formerly of the DeLuxe.

Mary and Bill Peirce from Costa Mesa were in the park Wednesday visiting the Vic Larsons and Evelyn and Gene Cox. The Peirces are well known here in the area as they are former residents of Tramview.

NEWEST OWNERS of new mobile homes this week include the C. P. (Fuzz) Ralphs who have the latest ten-wide, and also Mary Lanze who has an unusual double decker mobile home with the bedrooms on the second floor.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Baker had Mr. Baker's brother, Jack Baker, as their guest recently. Marie Barnes entertained Mrs. Viva Quigley and Mrs. Grace Best of Sherman Oaks, the two ladies who accompanied Marie last year at this time on their month long trip to Honolulu.

Winners of the March 4 Progressive Bridge for Pairs were: First, Etta Heacock and Jo Oass; second, Dorothy Baldwin and Maude Campbell, and third, Ethel Baker and Evelyn Cox.

Sahara Park
The pool at the Sahara Park was the scene of the unusually colorful Fashion Show presented by Fiesta Fashions.

Forty glamorous versions of the southwestern classics were introduced at that time by models from the Marg Roley School of Charm at Laguna Beach and by three ladies from Sahara Park, Alma Adair, Kathryn Flynn and Ellen Hair.

MRS. ROLEY commented the show. Art Anderson and Joe Garside inserted a clever comedy bit by dressing in ladies attire and parading around the pool only to get involved in an "argument" which ended by both landing in the pool.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hair also entertained by dancing the Polka while the models presented the Bavarian Fiesta costume. Bathing suits were shown, and a display of unusual resort hats by Percy of Laguna added spice and charm.

A SQUARE DANCE number featuring full skirts and "can can" clips was given by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Totten, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mendens. These were complimented by the eight models in gay skirts of rainbow hues circling the pool for the finale. Gayle and Herbert Yerkes, owners of the shop, are residents of Sahara Park.

ANOTHER OCCASION enjoyed by 45 residents of Sahara Park was the brunch held at the El Mirador on Sunday. Mrs. Loretta Lital is the chairman of the Ladies Activities for the month of March. A number of special activities for the month have been planned.

The hostesses for the Ladies Monday Luncheon and Card Party this last Monday were Bubbles Morris, Betty Cole and Florence Blezard.

Square Dance enthusiasts Roy Smiths, Howard Tottens and George Hairs recently took their vacation trailers to Phoenix to attend the Arizona Square Dance Jamboree. The Joe Garsides also attended, only going on further to Tucson where they visited with Mrs. Garside's sister and family.

Desert Hills
The February Pot Luck held at the Desert Hills was a success. Approximately 45 were present, and after the dinner Mr. and Mrs. Orville Stovack showed slides of Mexico and trips they had taken. Plans have been made for a March Pot Luck which will be held Tuesday.

New arrivals include Col. and Mrs. Albert Wick from Escondido, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Sutherland from Long Beach, Jess and Ethel Hibben from Crestline, and Mr. and Mrs. George Schultz from Los Angeles.

THOSE WHO HAVE returned to Desert Hills recently are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. McKelvey, managers of Desert Hills, are the new grandparents of a little girl, Elizabeth Ann, who was born Feb. 17 to their daughter and son-in-law, Janet and Jerry Stevenson.

Movies of Europe were shown recently to the guests of Desert Hills. Dr. Adolphe Pervy presented the entertainment and the commentary.

Beckleys
Residents of Beckley's had many guests during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Turner entertained their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Turner, and also Mrs. Jim Turner, and also Mrs. All the guests were from Pocatello, Idaho, and enjoyed the day and Sunday dinner together.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hawkins are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brislin from San Jose for the week. All are enjoying the various Square Dances given at the different parks in the area.

KEN AND THELMA Floyd are staying at Beckley's for the next two to three months. Barbara and Jack Barnes, managers of Beckley's, have had Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Varnadoe from Lancaster as their guests recently.

MR. AND MRS. JACK Eakin have taken a trip to Yuma where they will spend a week.

Saturday night a friend of Dr. Parker's, Mr. Kampa entertained a large number in the park with pictures he had brought with him.

Horizon Village
Things are happening at Horizon at the height of the season. With shuffleboard, sewing class, the Hi-Neighbor Hour, card parties, swimming and dancing there is something of interest for everyone.

Friday night the dance hall at Horizon was jumping at the square dance, with Buzz Brown calling. There were fourteen squares on the floor most of the time and during intermission sandwiches and coffee was served. Betty Streck and her committee were in charge of the refreshments.

MANY NEW TEN wide are moving here every week. Earl and Lois Kilborn and Gilda and George White are new owners.

Alice and Walter Schucks of Seattle have returned to the park for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Logan Abernathy of La Jolla have returned from a couple of months in Florida.

ANN AND HARRY Baldwin of San Mateo and Olive and Harry Markley of La Mesa are waiting for a permanent lot here for the balance of the season, and Andy and Daisy Stephenson of Pasadena are also visiting at Horizon.

Dave and Gertrude McLaren have returned from a short trip to Arizona.

Betsy Karnes is home again from the hospital and feeling much better.

Pictures of the Orient were shown at the Tuesday night meeting of the Camera Club. Ora Hoffman secured the pictures. Coffee made by Tom Renshaw was enjoyed during intermission.

Ramon Trailer Park
There has been a play-off for park Shuffleboard Champion at Ramon. Jim Mindheim is the champion for the Men's team, and Tina Holstead for the Women's. These two will play against Sahara's top players, with each park rooting for their park players.

A Barbecue is being planned for Monday in connection with the Shuffleboard. At that time the Park Trophies will be presented to the best players.

LAST SATURDAY night's dance was exciting and entertaining. Rose Dikes, who plays with the orchestra, had a birthday and many in the park wished to help with a gift and turn the party into a surprise party for her. The idea was a complete success.

All sang the Birthday song, a gift and card with many names was given Rose and a huge birthday cake was cut for the occasion. The hall was crowded with dancers and friends.

New residents at Ramon include Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shinn from Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Van Schaik, Mr. and Mrs. Kinner and Alma Gravel.

Palm Valley
This park is all buzzing with excitement lately as plans for a wedding are in the air. Verna Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mills, will marry Don C. Wilcox from Laguna next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Malter, parents of Mrs. James Mills, visited this weekend from El Cajon with the family. The wedding will take place at the Palm Springs Community Church on April 12.

New residents here include Mr. and Mrs. Luke from Salt Lake City, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ballmos, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Elliott of Orange; Mr. and Mrs. W. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Ingray from Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Wise from Upland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stasser are back in the park, and Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins and their daughter, Janice, are here with their travel trailer. Their permanent large mobile home is located at Lido Isle, but they come here to enjoy the desert and the Palm Valley Trailer Park.
